The convener, of women cell, Manisha Rajendral, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, has explained the purpose of the programme. All the members of Women Cell and other faculties have delivered a speech nicely on health and hygiene practices. All focus on good hygiene. They say that good health means avoiding illness and spending less money and time on health care. It can secure a good social status and help individuals to build self confidence. It is very difficult to be healthy oneself without the right knowledge, skills and adequate family support. The focus is on supporting adolescent girls and women with menstrual hygiene management to help them clean themselves. They need to learn about the uses of sanitary napkins. This practice will help women healthy in hygiene issues.

The chairperson has summed up the programme with a positive remark on women's health. He further says that good health of a woman brings smiling and happiness to the family as a whole.
