An awareness programme is organized by Women Cell of Binanoli Chandra Medhi College, Ramdia, at college premise, under the chairmanship of Dr Ashil K. Paul, Principal of the college. The convenor, of women cell, Manisha Mejumdar, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, has explained the purpose of the programme. All the members of Women Cell and other faculties have delivered their speech nicely on health and hygiene practices. They all focus on good hygiene. They say that good hygiene means avoiding illness and spending less money and time on health care. It can secure a family's social status and help individuals to build self confidence. It is very difficult to keep healthy oneself without the right knowledge, skills and adequate family support. They emphasize on supporting adolescent girls and women with menstrual hygiene management to keep clean themselves. They need to learn about the uses of sanitary napkins. These practices keep women healthy in hygiene issues.

The chairperson has summed up the programme with a positive remark on women's health. He further says that good health of a woman brings smiling and happiness to the family as a whole.
