

BINANDI CHANDRA MEDHI COLLEGE, RAMDIA

Electoral Literacy Day Observation

Sunday 25th January, 2026

Venue: Digital Classroom

Report

On 25th January, 2026, the awareness programme was held to celebrate the 16th National Voters' Day at the Digital Classroom of the college to mobilize awareness about the democratic right to vote for building a prosperous nation. The convenor of the Electoral Literacy Cell, Saidur Rahman explains the objectives of the awareness programme and significance of the voting right in the line of 'My India, My Vote' citizen at the heart of Indian democracy.

The chairperson Dr. Biswajit Das, principal of the college explains about the importance of the right to vote for the young generation to make an inclusive sustainable democratic set up. He also says that whoever attain 18 years of age, they should consider themselves fortunate and proud to be a voter of a country like India. He urges to impart knowledge about the EVM machine and to spread awareness among the citizens to participate in the electoral process of the nation.

Dr. Bishnu Ram Das, Assistant Professor of Mathematics insists on the participation of the young generation to play a profound role in the nation building process. Rojob Ali, General Secretary of the college students' union promises to join in the electoral process of India without any fear and restriction. Being one of the young generations, he shows his concern for the significant role of the young generation to elect a stable and democratic government for a suitable future ahead.

The awareness programme ended with the vote of thanks.

Convenor

Saidur Rahman

NATIONAL VOTER'S DAY CELEBRATION, 2026

Pledge taking ceremony

Voter's Pledge:

“We, the citizen of India, having abiding faith in democracy, hereby pledge to uphold the democratic traditions of our country and the dignity of free, fair and peaceful elections and to vote in every election fearlessly and without being influenced by considerations of religion, race, caste, community, language or any inducement.”

Principal of the college Dr Bishwajit Das reads out the pledge of the Election Commission of India before the august gathering of the students, convenor and members of the Electoral Literacy Cell and faculties. Voter's pledge ceremony 2026 is organized by the Electoral Literacy Cell of the college.

