

BINANDI CHANDRA MEDHI COLLEGE, RAMDIA

College Establishment Day Observation

Wednesday 13th August, 2025

Venue: ICT Hall

Report

Like previous years, Binandi Chandra Medhi College, Ramdia observes establishment day this year also. In connection with the observation, the college flag is hoisted first in the morning at 9 a.m. by the college Governing Body president Mr. Bimal Chandra Medhi. At 9:30 a.m. a plant is planted by Mr. Narayan Deka, first and ex-honorary English lecturer of the college. After it a lamp (Chaki) is lit in front of the image of Binandi Chandra Medhi and it is garlanded by a flower garland by Madhabi Medhi, daughter-in-law of Binandi Chandra Medhi cum donor member of the college governing body. Many others present showed their homage offering flowers to the image. A few students of the college sing a chorus in front of the gathering. After the chorus, the president of the observation programme Mr. Bimal Chandra Medhi, has his seat. Dr. Biswajit Das, principal of the college delivers his welcome speech narrating the history of the college and the important role of the local people for establishing and rearing up the college. After the welcome speech, the memorial tribute is started. In this memorial tribute, some local social workers like Narayan Deka, Mahendra Deka, Atul Chandra Kakati, Dharendra Nath Kalita; Bhadreswar Deka, retired Assistant Professor, Dept. Assamese of the college, and several others remember the past of the college and some important persons who had a great role for the establishment of the college, and everybody becomes nostalgic. Sankar Das, RSS Boudhik Pramukh Asom Khetra inaugurates a book entitled Ramdia, Bhasha-Shahitya- Sanskritir Samikhsha (1st Edition) edited by Dr. Mukut Pathak, Asst. Professor, Dept. Assamese, B.C. Medhi College, Ramdia and delivers a valuable speech in regard to language and culture. Dinamoni Bhandar Kayasta, Deputy Director, AMTRON delivers his valuable speech on language and culture including the roles of the young generation to save own language and culture. Dr. Birinchi Kumar Das, Vice-Chancellor of Bhattadev University presents a PPT presenting all about the National Education System. At the end of the meeting Dr. Biswajit Das, Principal of the college offers the vote of thanks to all and the president declares the conclusion of the programme.

